As a reflection of his deep faith he was very devoted to the Dewey Christian Church where he served as Elder, music leader, and 40 year Sunday school teacher. “ I once locked my keys in my car at the hospital when I was visiting a patient. Kirk took over 45 minutes to break into my car. In this act of kindness I witnessed the amazing man he was...he never gave up, he didn't worry about how much time it took, and he was such an honest man that breaking into a car took 45 minutes which told me he would never make it as a criminal. All my memories of Kirk were of a man of God.
