“ I first had the privilege of meeting Landa through her late husband Wade.

I was employed at D P Bonham Trucking in the late 70s and early 80s. Wade's nickname was bulldog and Landa was Bunny.

She was always Bunny to me .

The two of them were like peas and carrots.

You never saw one with out the other.Wade worked for Bonham Trucking till he retired.

Landa worked for Reda Pump. You never met a nicer couple. With her passing, this brings them back together in heaven, the perfect place for them both. It has been my pleasure to have known Landa and Wade.

Landa and Wade bought my home in Copan, we always addressed it as the Hill House. Knew Wade and his family for many years. Met Landa through Wade. And yes Denny they were so close and always together. As they are now! She will be missed.
