

Linda Kay Barker

February 7, 1943 - August 18, 2022

Linda Barker, 79, of Bartlesville, ascended to heaven to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Thursday, August 18, 2022, in Bartlesville.

Linda was born February 7, 1943, in Ames, Iowa, to Walter and Nadine (Campbell) Barker. She had two brothers. Linda graduated from high school in Collins, Iowa, in 1960. From there she entered the Marine Corps and was honorably discharged in 1962.

Linda was employed and retired from the Washington County Assessor's office. Her children and her grandchildren were the center of her world. She ruled the roost with a heart of gold, but with her Marine boots on in case someone got out of line. She had an amazing sense of humor and loved to laugh. She loved to garden, and flowers just wanted to grow beautiful for her. She was very artistic, even winning blue ribbons for her drawings and paintings. Linda was a great mom, grandma, and friend. She was a loving mom, not only to her biological children, but she was also a loving mom to anyone who was adrift and needed to be mothered. She will be so dearly missed.

Linda is survived by her brother, Doug Barker; her former husband, Frank Aleman; her five daughters, Bonnie Jesse and husband Carl of Independence, KS, Raelene Aleman of the home, Robin Willig and husband

Lance of Wann, OK, Jenny Allford of the home, and Rena Barnett and husband Allen of Ochelata, OK; 12 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren, with number 20 due in April; nephews, Greg, Jeremy, Dusty; nieces, Kasey, and Melissa; and cousins. She is also survived by and mourned by her beloved Mack, the giant Rottie who says daily what we all feel at her loss, Oowoooh! She was preceded in death by her brother Joe Barker and her granddaughter Morgan Scherer.

Graveside services will be held 10 a.m. on Wednesday, August 24, 2022, at the Dewey Cemetery with Father Leonard Higgins officiating. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home – Dewey Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

“ I met Linda in 1987 under somewhat strange circumstances. My son had impregnated her 'red headed' daughter, Jen, and she had a baby girl we had no clue about until our son was killed in an accident. Linda, Jen and other daughters came to visit to show us Miss Tara. Of course we all family fell in love with Tara, Jen and her entire family. Over the years we have had lots to talk about regarding our children and grandchild. We didn't visit in person as often as I would have liked but we always kept in touch. She let me share her daughters and I think she felt about the same about my children and grands. I have precious memories of Linda and will cherish them until we meet again. Mama Dix

“ Mom was accomplished in everything she set out to tackle, but I love reading through her memoirs from time to time to time so I thought I would share a few pages. Miss you mom! See you on the other side! I hear it is beautiful there! I can just imagine the amazing irises and lilies! I bet the crepe myrtles are everblooming too!

“ I am missing you so much right now Momma. I started to call you last night to see how your day went. What am I going to do everyday at lunch now? Who is going to watch radar with me? Who do I discuss convective outlooks with? What if I have questions about life? What do I do now? How do I do all the things without you? Some minutes it hurts to even breathe without you. I know where you are and I know I will see you there but I can't get to you so you can tell me to get ahold of myself and take deep breaths. Just so you know, this is bulls@&$! I just wish you could come and yell at me for cussing.

“ I have been a really close friend of Linda's for almost 37 yrs. She was always someone I could talk to and laugh and cry with when I was having problems. We were family. And after my car accident she helped through alot of the ups snd downs of having to do with the pain. We would talk alot on the phone about everything. I loved her telling me stories of where she grew up in Iowa. Because I grew up in Iowa too. I will miss my special family friend. I love you Linda and will greatly miss you!
