

Linda Kay Daniel

April 6, 1948 - October 22, 2019

Linda Kay Daniel, 71, of Dewey, died Tuesday in Dewey.

Linda was born the daughter of Kenneth Hudson and Eula Maxine (Chance) Monroe on April 6, 1948 in Bartlesville. She was raised in the area, attending and graduating from Dewey High School in 1966. She went on to further her education at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, graduating with a bachelor's degree in Sociology and Education in 1971. Once her daughter Misty was born, she decided she wanted to be a stay-at-home mom and cherished the years they spent together.

Linda loved her parents and was a momma's girl. Her mother was a wonderful cook and Linda loved her chocolate pies. Naturally she loved her grandchildren and always had M&M's for her great granddaughter Maddie every time they were together.

Linda is survived by her daughter, Misty and husband Michael Cox of Dewey; one brother, Lester Shull; three grandchildren, Michael Jacob Cox, Brittany Renee Cox and Alyssa Daniel Cox; and one precious great-granddaughter, Madyson Marie Davis. Linda is preceded in death by her parents.

No formal services are planned. Arrangements are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home – Dewey Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

I remember the first time she met Maddie. We set Maddie on her lap and mema Linda just had a big smile on her face and rubbed Maddies little chubby cheeks and held her little hand she kept saying how beautiful she is... She would rub my hand and tell me I was beautiful. Jacob always made her laugh by the smart remarks he popped off.. She was always so happy and made everyone in the room smile. Maddie loves her mema Linda. She was definitely an amazing lady that will truly be missed. 💔👉 so sorry for your loss! We love you all.

Misty, your Mom was absolutely one of the nicest people I have ever known. I have fond memories of our time of being neighbors at the condos. Hope you can find comfort in your memories of your sweet Mom.
