

Linsay Nicole Bowline

January 18, 1993 - January 12, 2024

Linsay Nicole (George) Bowline, 30, of Ramona, passed away with her beloved son, Laken, in her arms, on Friday, January 12, 2024.

Linsay was born January 18, 1993, in Bartlesville, to James Brusveen and Tracy Lynn George. She graduated from Caney Valley High School in Ramona in 2011 and then attended Northeastern State University in Tahlequah. During high school, Linsay attended Tri County Technology Center and graduated from their cosmetology program. She worked at Regis in the Bartlesville mall and eventually became a “traveling” stylist, going to people’s homes to work her magic on their hair.

Linsay was dramatic, ditzy, beautiful, and kind. She had the biggest heart and the biggest feelings, and her family refer to her as a drama queen. She was a wonderful mother who managed to rescue one of her sweet children in a tragic house fire. She was selfless to the end. She was very involved in her boys’ lives. She attended all their ballgames and made the cutest Halloween costumes and Christmas shirts. Her hobbies were all wrapped around her children, her family, and hairstyling.

Linsay is survived by her husband, Landon Bowline; her mother, Tracy George; her husband’s parents, Rick and Sherri Rust; son, Layne Bowline; two sisters, Whitney George, and Rebecca McDonald; a brother, Travis Brusveen; brothers-in-law, Logan Bowline, and Nick Rust; and sister-in-law, Brandi Zellner. She was preceded in death by her father, James Brusveen, and joined in death by her son, Laken Bowline, and grandmother, Pearlle “Jayne” George.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, January 19, 2024, at First Baptist Church of Ramona with Pastor Lynn Nikkel and Pastor Scott Carlson officiating. Private family interment will follow at Ramona Cemetery. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

“ Linsey was a good student when I taught her in 5th grade. She was always smiling in 5th grade. She was smiling again on Meet the teacher night (1st time I had seen her since 5th) when she brought Laken to the classroom across the hall. She was so proud and happy. Praying for your family!
