“ I remember him as sweet and ornery at the same time. My mother worked in the assessors office with him until his retirement. His gentle teasing could bring this shy teenager out of her shell. He will be remembered fondly for many years to come by his community.

“ He was a exceptional man, always very friendly. I worked with him so many years ago in the assessor office. He was a Dewey "fixture", always out and about. You will be missed.
Rest in peace.
