

Louise Jordan Miller

December 11, 1930 - December 20, 2023

On December 20th, 2023, at the age of 93, Louise Ella Jordan Miller left us peacefully for her final approach into eternity following a week of fellowship with friends and family.

Louise Miller was born on December 11th, 1930 in Wildhorse, Oklahoma where she was raised. Louise graduated from Wildhorse High School in 1949 where she enjoyed sports and discovered her gift for writing. After school, she worked for the Bartlesville Examiner and Reda Pump. She married James Miller on January 11th, 1951 which began a lifelong journey of family, memories, and legacy.

While stationed at Fort Sill in Lawton, their daughter Constance Lewis was born on base on September 7th, 1953. Their son Stanley Miller I was born on October 3rd, 1955 in Tulsa, OK. Her family followed oil booms while raising kids and lived in multiple towns in Oklahoma and Kansas. Louise always took pride in her family and home. In addition to raising her kids, she had a knack for design and drew plans for several homes that she and Jim built together; she then went on to help the next generations do the same.

With her kids raised, Louise had an idea to create an oil and gas company with her husband and their adult children. That idea became Lamamco Drilling Company in 1974. This venture and affiliated businesses was a tremendous chapter of their life for decades. She loved working alongside her two children and their partners. What began as her idea and one oil lease became one of the largest independent oil companies in Oklahoma and has become a multi-generational endeavor.

Louise and her family shared a deep love for traveling and exploring together. Her grandchildren also fondly recall time spent at the “farm,” a perfect home for favorite meals, go-karts, and games with grandma and grandpa. Louise would cry when the grandkids left... every time.

Louise is survived by her husband James William Miller; daughter Constance Susan Lewis and husband Gary Lewis; sister Betty Schofield and husband Joe Schofield; grandchildren Tracie Haag and husband Blaine Haag, Stanley Miller II and wife Kris Miller, Gary Lewis II and wife Carri Lewis, Shannon Miller, Skylar Miller and wife Danielle Miller, Leslie Lewis, and Sara Downing and husband Shane Downing; great-grandchildren Taylor, Connor, Parker, Grace, Avery, Jay, Calli, Grady, Josi, Mariah, Miriam, Kodi, Cooper, Madison, Alexandra, Malachi, Maximilian, Forrester, August, Moses, Crosby, Wilder, and Georgia; and great-great-grandchild Cillian; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her son Stanley James Miller I; parents Perry and Hazel Jordan; siblings Francis Mayfield, Annabelle Huntz, Aden Lee, Calvin Don Jordan, Leona Lee, Wanda Smith, and Robert Leon Jordan; and granddaughter Carrie Andrea Lewis.

Louise was an active member of Dewey First Baptist Church. Until her final days, she steadfastly spoke of her faith and passion for Christ. Out of her great love for her Savior came a deep love for her family - a love that abounded throughout her life, and was deeply felt by her loved ones in her final days.

Louise's family will receive friends on Friday, from 6-8 p.m., at the Davis Family Funeral Home & Crematory – Walker Brown Chapel, 918-333-7665, 4201 Nowata Rd, Bartlesville. Visitation will also be held on Friday from 10-8 and Saturday 9-11.

Services will be held on Saturday, 2 p.m., at the Dewey First Baptist Church, with Pastor Mark Wright and Dr. Anthony Jordan officiating. Entombment will follow in the Memorial Park Cemetery. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home & Crematory – Walker Brown Chapel. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

“ Aunt Louise was a wonderful aunt and person. She had one of those great laughs. I never did hear the joke that was told or what it was that Aunt Louise, Uncle Jim, Mom and Dad (Bobbie and Wayne Graham) would laugh and have a high ole time in that dingy doghouse in the middle of the night or the heat of the day. You could hear Aunt Louise and Mom laughing that carried over the pasture at the farm where they were drilling. I will miss her laugh and smile with the twinkle in her eyes.

Louise Jordan came into my life when I was about four or five years old on afternoon after I woke up from my nap there was this really pretty girl sitting by uncle Jim out in the back yard of the farmhouse. There at the 1 mile I couldn't figure out what they were doing. They were just sitting there looking at each other Like really weird looking at each other which after I grew up and was 17 I guess I looked at really weird look too at somebody that was special in my life. Jimmy had dated other girls, but when he started dating Louise, that was the end right there I was blessed to be able to travel with Miller And Louise to go to see uncle Jim when he was stationed at Fort Sill... Aunt Louise was the favorite aunt that let me stay two weeks at a time with her and uncle Jim during the summer we went to the movies the drive-in movies we toured the big houses in Pawhuska we cooked we cleaned, but most of all we laughed. There was always something to laugh about and I should always remember the twinkle in her eye when she smiles the sound of her voice when she's telling you how much she cares about you we were so blessed that uncle Jan chose to marry Louise and let her be our aunt.
