Loyd Van Harris was born on April 11, 1932, in Shannon, Texas, to Arthur Lee and Lillie Mae (Hargrove) Harris. He grew up and attended high school in the Jack County Texas area. Loyd served in the U.S. Army from December 1952 through December 1954. He attained the rank of Corporal and served as a cook on an Air Force supply ship that ferried supplies between Seattle, Washington and Barrow, Alaska.

Loyd worked for Phillips Petroleum Company for 38 years with 10 years in the oil fields and 28 years at the research center in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. He retired in 1990 as a Research Associate.

“ I knew Loyd from working at Phillips. He was both a co-worker and friend. One of the best. We always knew once Loyd got started on a project you didn't need to worry about it, he would take care of it. He had a very laid back way of working, even putting up with newbie knuckleheads like myself.
