

LyChelle Marie Hooker

February 23, 1973 - July 19, 2021

LyChelle Marie Hooker, 48, of Tulsa, died Monday in Tulsa.

LyChelle was born the daughter of LeOtis H. Hall and Vivian LeOra Bruner on February 23, 1973, in Bartlesville, OK. She was raised and educated in Bartlesville, graduating from Bartlesville High School in 1991. LyChelle was a strong woman and always ready for new experiences - even if she might have been a little scared to step forward, she went on ahead and did it.

Family meant the world to LyChelle. She was a wonderful mother to her two daughters Tiffany and LyShawn, helping them along the way and making sure she was always there for their big moments. A loving and caring grandmother to Alaric and TySon, LyChelle was ready to play and watch her little men every chance she got. "Poohbear" loved people and talking to 'em even more than honey - 'Chelle made friends easily and many became like adopted family. But hands down, her favorite people were her family.

Her passions in life revolved around music, mostly R&B from back in the day, slow dancing (sometimes a little offbeat), as well as laughing and making other people laugh. She loved life and sometimes got a little excited along the way. One thing for sure was when you were with LyChelle you were having fun. Although taken too soon she blessed the hearts of those that loved her and she will be greatly missed.

LyChelle is survived by her parents LeOtis H. Hall and Vivian LeOra Bruner, two daughters Tiffany Hall and LyShawn LeOra Hooker, brother LeOtis N. Hall, two grandchildren Alaric and TySon Garrett, nephew Brayden and niece Airia.
