

Margaret Lee Turner

September 15, 1926 - December 1, 2015

Margaret Lee (Lynch) Turner was called to her Eternal Home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on December 1, 2015, at Forrest Manor Home in Dewey. She was 89 years old. Margaret was born to James Arthur and Georgia Leona (Cooper) Lynch on September 15, 1926, in Eminence, MO. When Margaret was about four years old, the family home near Eminence burned to the ground, and the Lynch family relocated back to Dewey where J. A. and Georgia had met at the Dewey Hotel dining room where Georgia was employed as a waitress. Margaret was predeceased by her parents and siblings, Arthur Allen Lynch of Byron, Georgia in late 2013, Lillian Inez Reed in March 2014, and Helen Lucille Hess in July 2014.

Margaret attended Dewey schools. She later met Paul Turner, and they married in Bartlesville on October 30, 1943. They had one son, John Allen Turner. Margaret worked at Phillips Petroleum Company for 15 years and later worked in the office of Peters Dry Goods Store in Dewey for several years. Margaret was a very kind and compassionate friend and neighbor to those who needed assistance, and she enjoyed baking and preparing food for those she loved. She cherished her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and kept in touch with nieces, nephews, and other extended family. In Margaret's words, "I feel the most important thing in life is being a Christian and living a sweet life for our God." Both Paul and Margaret were long time members of the Dewey First Baptist Church. They had just celebrated their 64th

Anniversary when Paul died in December 2007. Margaret could often be found working in her yard, growing flowers and plum trees. She would give away starts from the trees to others, as well as her homemade plum jelly. She was a big OU football fan! Margaret loved her home in Dewey where she had resided since 1945, and she was blessed to have been able to remain there until just recently, due to the assistance of caregiver and friend, Carol Rice. The family is thankful for Carol, as well as Comforting Hands Hospice and Margaret's caregivers at Forrest Manor.

Margaret is survived by her son, John Turner and wife, Kathy, of Bartlesville; grandchildren Kristin and Dr. Brad Barber of Bartlesville and Philip Turner of Oklahoma City; great-grandchildren Olivia Kate Barber and Noah Barber of Bartlesville and Jude Turner of Oklahoma City. Margaret is also survived by her sister-in-law, Ruth Adams of Bartlesville, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Visitation will be on Wednesday 12-8pm and Thursday 9-8pm at the Davis Family Funeral Home.

Graveside services will be held 11 a.m. on Friday, December 4, 2015, at the Dewey cemetery, with Pastor Mark Wright officiating. Services are under the direction of Carter Davis and the Davis Family Funeral Home. Online condolences and remembrances may be shared with Margaret's family at www.DavisFamilyFuneralHome.com.

“ Sweetest couple ever Paul and Margaret. My Dad owned Jack Cannon's Cleaners where Paul worked for many years. I grew up at the Cleaners and Paul and Margaret were an important part of that growing up. The world was a better place with them in it.

“ My dear, sweet Aunt Margaret was a "joy" in my life. Her quick laughter, kind heart and genuine caring endeared all to her. If you went to see her to cheer up she surprised you and cheered me up.

Such dedicated Christians she and Uncle Paul were who sought to help others and not requiring a lot for themselves. She shared Johnny with me and my family when my mom, Lillian kept him in the summer while she worked.

I will miss her but in my "mind's eye" I know where she is and how "Wondrously happy she is and I will see her again.
