

Martha "Sue" Pugh

December 30, 1940 - December 28, 2014

Martha "Suzy" Pugh passed from this life on Sunday, December 28, 2014.

A graveside service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Friday, January 2, 2015 at the Tyner Cemetery in Oglesby, OK with Reverend Darryl Wootton officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Walker-Brown Funeral Home.

Martha Ann "Suzy" Martin was born in Dewey, OK to Willard Frank and Alma (Austin) Martin on December 30, 1940. She attended Dewey schools as a child before the family moved to the Coos Bay, Oregon area. The family returned to the Bartlesville/Dewey area where she met and married James Evert Pugh in Oglesby on August 17, 1957. They made their home in Bartlesville and were married 54 years until James death on August 26, 2013. She was employed in the housekeeping department of Jane Phillips Medical Center for over 20 years. Suzy loved to camp and fish until her health no longer permitted her to continue. She loved having her grand kids around and they were always doing things with her.

Suzy is survived by her four daughters and husbands: Ginger Lin and husband Claud Wisinger, Janet Lea and husband Monty Kendrick, Sue Ellen and husband Joseph Werts, Beth Ann and husband David Grimm. She was blessed with 12 grandchildren, 27 great grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband James Pugh, sister Betty Pratz and brother's; Jack, Willard "Butch", Timothy "Pete" and Frank Martin.
