

Martha Pauline Roth

September 14, 1932 - October 9, 2020

Martha Roth, longtime Copan resident, was 88 when she died Friday in Copan surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Copan and was always proud of her hometown.

Martha was born the daughter of Lloyd Alfonzo and Martha Ruby (Reese) Medearis on September 14, 1932, in Copan. She was raised and educated in Copan with the class of 1951. During this time she formed very strong bonds with her siblings whom she loved dearly. Family was everything to her.

Martha met the love of her life Bud Roth and they married on September 9, 1948. After making their first home in Pasadena, TX, they quickly realized that home was in Copan and they returned. Together Martha and Bud opened Copan Western Auto and later the Copan Café which they ran for several years. Later in life she started working for Phillips Petroleum Company, first on the switchboard and later in the travel department, before finally retiring in 1992. After 52 years of loving marriage, Bud preceded her in death on December 14, 2000.

When the kids were young the family took many wonderful camping trips to Colorado. Bud and Martha enjoyed many memorable trips together. She enjoyed spending time with her family - going on many girl trips over the years and numerous family trips to Destin, Florida. Martha enjoyed crocheting and sewing.

Martha is survived by her children, Brenda Farmer and David, Dannie Roth and Sue Thomas; brother Paul Medearis; sister Norma Sas; four grandchildren Laurie Booth and Randall, Lance Knight and Angel, Luke Thomas, and Amanda and Troy Thomas; five great grandchildren, Keri, Destiny, Mia, Hunter, Boyd; and numerous nieces and nephews whom she loved dearly. Also her beloved fur baby of 16 years, Buddy Lee. She is preceded in death by her parents; husband Bud; brother Alfred Medearis; sisters Verla Morris, Lois Wassom and Donna Stewart; and son in law Greg Thomas.

“ My memories of Martha are when her husband, Bud, was hospitalized in the VA hospital in Houston, TX, following an accident that left him paralyzed from the neck down. I lived in Houston at the time and I would regularly visit Bud and Martha in the hospital when Martha and her daughter Sue, my Sister-In-Law, would come to visit. Martha was a wonderful calming presence dedicated to helping Bud's recovery. Martha always had good humor despite the seriousness of Bud's condition and their love for each other was evident. I always looked forward to these visits and to talking to Martha and getting to know her better and to listen to the difficult decisions she had to make regarding Bud's health care. Martha will be missed by all who knew her and especially by her children, Sue, Brenda and Dan, who were dedicated to her and her well being, and by me who remembers her positive outlook, humor and calmness in stressful times.
