Marty's love was a gift to the world and he was gifted with an amazing family who couldn't have loved him more. To know Marty was to love him and the big circle of that love stretches far beyond those who gather today to celebrate him with your precious presence. Our hearts are with you now and forever, honoring him and you who are there to comfort and console each other in the darkness of the loss of his presence on the earth he loved with tenderness and passion . “ only the gold remains”..that love shines brighter than the deepest darkness ..with love and deepest sympathy, Linda and family

Reflecting on the time I spent with Marty recently. He was a loving sincere cousin, whom I wish I had more time to spend with. I could have learned so much more from him. My thoughts and prayers to all of my warm family that surrounded him. Thank you Pam and Aunt Janice for the overwhelming heart and support you gave so unselfishly. Love you Marty, Bryce Inda
