

Mr. Marvin Woodrow Polk

July 7, 1943 - January 11, 2013

Marvin Woodrow Polk, 69, of Bartlesville, died Friday.

Marvin was born July 7, 1943 the son of Alvin Woodrow Polk and Rosalie Isabel (Lowen) Polk in Bartlesville, OK. He was raised and educated in the Ochelata schools and graduated from College High School in Bartlesville. Marvin served in the Army during the Korean War. He was a good provider for his family and was known for his strong work ethic. Marvin worked throughout the years in construction building homes, roads and concrete work. For the past 12 years he worked for Dunes Concrete. Marvin loved doing what he wanted as long as no one was hurt along the way. He will be dearly missed.

Marvin is survived by his three children, Toni Fitzhugh of Douglas, WY, Randy McGuire and his wife Serina of Ochelata, and Terri Brock and her husband of Claremore, OK; five grandchildren: Megan Henry of Claremore, Levi McHenry of Claremore, Brandi McGuire of Bartlesville, Chance Fitzhugh of Douglas, and Danny McGuire of Ochelata, and several nieces and nephews. He is also survived by good friends, Dune Sharp, Fred Nowak and Larry Fugate. Marvin is preceded in death by his parents and two sisters, Caroline Sumner and Wanda Madden.

Funeral services for Mr. Polk will be held on Thursday, January 17, 2013, 2 p.m. at the Matoka Baptist Church of Ochelata. Rev. Sherman Jaquess will officiate. Interment will follow in the Matoka Cemetery. Visitation will be on Wednesday from 10am – 8pm.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Davis Family Funeral Home. Online condolences may be left at www.davisfamilyfuneralhome.com.
