Melita and Lisa...my heartfelt condolences to you and your families. Norma drifted into my life one day and into my heart. Changes occurred that were beyond our control, but I have always had a special place for her in my heart, and still do. It is impossible to know Norma and not love her. Throughout the years when I would talk to her it was as if nothing changed...Norma never changed, those she loved she loved wholeheartedly. Samantha, Amber and Josh all have fond memories of "our Norma," as they called her, as she made each feel so special in their own way. When we would visit, Norma and I would sit up until the early morning hours talking about not much of anything and everything. I miss those times. She was so very proud of you girls, you and her grandchildren were her life. I am so very sorry for your loss.

I always had a deep respect for Ms. Byrd/Exendine! She was always very kind to me and despite my failure to ever really understand how to correctly diagram a sentence.....she always complimented me for having a pretty voice! And every time one of my boys read "Where the Red Fern Grows" I always think of her! My prayers for comfort and peace for her sweet family that only our Heavenly Father can give! RIP Norma....your work on earth is done! Now your one of our blessed Angels!
