A Special Life Lived:

Patti loved her husband J.C. Waller and dog Emma and her family dearly. Patti spent much of her adulthood supporting her grandchildren Aspen and Cassie in various school activities. She also enjoyed spending time in the country, watching her late son (Randy Pirtle) and daughter-in-law (Susan Pirtle) sheep grazing in the pasture and great grandkids playing outside. Patti always enjoyed a family get together or any kind of celebration that brought everyone close and especially loved her time sitting outside on the patio visiting with friends and family. Throughout much of Patti's adulthood she and her husband J.C. Waller loved traveling to Taos, New Mexico to vacation where the climate was a little dryer than that of Green Country. In lieu of flowers, the family asks for donations to be made to The Journey Home 900 Washington Boulevard Bartlesville, Oklahoma 74006 where Patti spent her final days before making her way into the Lord's arms. A private family memorial will be held at a later date; therefore no services will be held.
