My brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Joan Johnson and I met Perry at Intercontinental Airport a couple of years ago. He was in between flights on to Tulsa. Had a nice short visit with him and he shared with us his love of Costa Rica, but he would come home to be buried near his parents. He was always a good friend to our family. We enjoyed his sharp intellect and good humor. He was the last of a great, loving and close family. May he rest in peace.

i met Perry years ago on a trip to Costa Rica. I got to know him and his friends there. we would see each other every few months when I would come to town with my pal Randy Smith, and talk OU football and sports and life in general. Perry was a delight to sit with. His passion for life, his wit, and his life view were impressive. I am grateful I got to know him. when I heard he passed, my first reaction was a phrase he regularly uttered: "goddammit". My memory of him will burn bright.
