“ I worked with Bob when he was at Public Service Co. He was a good lineman and foreman. This was in late 60's 70's and early 80's. Good man. Hellava pool shooter. He was old school. His word was his bond. Festus

“ While saddened by Bob's passing, the time spent with him and listening to his singing country music are fond memories I'll remember him by. So thankful we made our trip to Derby this summer, what a great day. Gone but not forgotten, rest well old troubadour (reference to George Strait). Randy Doe

“ Though not bound by blood, you were family in every way that mattered. You loved my kids especially Landon as if they were your own grandkids, cheering him on in baseball, guiding him in Boy Scouts, and celebrating every birthday and holiday together. You gave us your time, your heart, and your love, and we will carry that with us forever. Thank you for being our family in the truest sense.
