

Robert "Bob" Wayne Marshall

April 23, 1924 - October 3, 2023

Robert "Bob" Wayne Marshall, 99, passed away Tuesday, October 3, 2023, at his home in Dewey.

Bob was born April 23, 1924, in Colorado Springs, Colo., to Chester Garfield Marshall and Johanna Marie (Janssen) Marshall. His family moved to Erie, Kan., where Bob graduated from high school in 1942. He joined the Merchant Marines on June 3, 1943 at Kansas City, Mo., and he was a 2nd cook and baker, serving during World War II. He was discharged on August 12, 1946. He was awarded two bars, the Atlantic War Zone bar and the Pacific War Zone bar.

Bob married the love of his life Betty Walker on December 25, 1948, and to this union four children were born, Steven Robert, Susan Marie, Scott Wayne, and Samuel Lee. They moved to Dewey in 1956, where he has lived ever since.

Bob was a carpenter for more than 50 years and received his 50-year pin for being a member of the Carpenter's Union, Local 1659, where he taught classes to help others learn the trade. Bob has many notable accomplishments in the Bartlesville area. His dedication and skill are seen in numerous structures, including supervising the construction of the doctor's building (Medical Park Center), the Eastland Shopping Center, and the Penn

Shopping Center. In addition, he helped build the bridge to the pond at Jane Phillips Medical Center Geriatrics and helped relocate the Hulah Depot near the Kiddie Park. He also worked with many projects for the Bartlesville Sportsman Club, and construction of other various buildings for Phillips Petroleum in the downtown area. He owned his own business for about five years, RW Construction.

In his spare time, Bob enjoyed fishing, hunting, gardening, and woodworking. He loved to cook for his family and hosted many Saturday barbecues, fish fries, and served an especially good smoked brisket, and homemade ice cream. Having Sunday silver dollar pancakes is a fond memory for his loved ones.

Bob was a happy fellow and his family will miss his sweet smile.

Bob is survived by his four children, Steven Marshall and wife Sandra, Susan Marshall, Scott Marshall and wife Teressa, and Samuel Marshall; grandchildren, Scott Marshall II, Stacy Wosel and husband Brandon, Sheila Howard, Sabrina Purkey and husband Allen, and Jacob Marshall; great-grandchildren, Alexander "Xander" Marshall Howard, Jared Allen Purkey, Austin Jaxon "A.J." Kayton Marshall, Kamren Lee Wosel, Charles Robert Wosel, and Lucas "Luke" Dale Purkey; and many nieces and nephews. “ Bob was the definition of master carpenter, hunter, and fisherman. I was in one of the classes that he taught at the Carpenter's Union, Local 1659. He was my fathers fishing buddy and an all-around great man. My condolences to Susan, Steven, Scott, Samuel, and the entire Marshall family.
