

Robin Christine Willig

December 13, 1965 - August 5, 2025

Robin Christine (Scherer) Willig, 59, of Wann, OK, passed away on Tuesday, August 5, 2025.

Robin was born December 13, 1965, in Honolulu, Hawaii, to Frank Aleman and Linda Barker. She was later adopted by her stepfather, Hap Scherer. Robin graduated from Caney Valley High School in Ramona in 1984. Her love of art began at a young age and while in high school, Robin was blessed to have a drawing displayed at the White House. An amazing artist, she loved to paint and draw, especially portraits.

After high school, Robin worked at Applied Automation, McDonald's, and La Faces Night Club. It was at La Faces where she met the love of her life, Lance Marlin Willig. The couple married on July 1, 1989, in Dewey, OK. The loving couple were blessed with a son, Lance Willig Jr. They enjoyed working on their farm, gardening, and showing dogs. Robin loved her horses, as well. She adored her sweet dogs and treated them like they were her children.

Robin developed a passion for essential oils and enjoyed helping people. This culminated in her becoming a wellness coach and distributor for Doterra Essential Oil. She opened a shop called Essential Stop in Coffeyville, which remained open until a couple of years ago.

In addition to her art and the essential oils, Robin's hobbies included gardening for vegetables and flowers, cooking from scratch.

Most of all, Robin adored her grandchildren. They were the light of her life. She was always sharing the Bible verse, Ephesians 6:10, "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the [a]wiles of the devil."

Robin's favorite Bible verse was Matthew 17:20, "He replied, "Because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

Survivors include her loving husband, Lance Willig Sr.; her father, Frank Aleman; son, Lance Willig Jr. and wife Britney; four sisters, Rena Barnett and husband Alan, Jenny Alford, Bonnie Jesse and husband Carl, Raelene Aleman; a brother-in-law, Mike Willig and wife Sharon; three grandchildren, Myna, Elaney, and Zayne; special nieces, Hayley Alford, Tara Vargas, Kimber Lavasseur; nephew, Colton Gibson; and a host of other family and friends.

Memorial services will be held 4 p.m. Friday, August 15, 2025, at Davis Family Funeral Home – Dewey Chapel, 113 S. Osage Ave., Dewey, OK 74029, 918-534-3030. Arrangements are under the direction of Carter Davis and Davis Family Funeral Home – Dewey Chapel. “ Robbie was always there to help me. She kept my rambunctious dog Riley as a puppy so I could go to a funeral in Iowa. She taught me all kinds of things. I still use my bubble. I thought of her like another sister like I do her other sisters. Love you.

“ Our family considered Robbie a member of our family. She is the aunt of one of our Granddaughters and we have known her for many years. Robbie was always supportive of her husband, children, grandchildren, sisters, their mother Linda and everyone she knew. She was the one who volunteered to make cakes for special occasions and enjoyed it immensely. And, the cakes were always beautiful and delicious. She was in her element being a "farm" gal. She will be missed and I pray for comfort for her immediate family and close friends. May she Rest In Peace, knowing how much she will be missed. Dixie. -- The Jim Spears Family
