

Ruth Ann Scott

May 6, 1936 - October 8, 2020

Ruth Ann (Edwards) Scott, 84, of Copan, died Thursday, Oct. 8, 2020, at her home.

She was born May 6th, 1936 in rural Copan, to Carl Dean Edwards and Bessie Priscilla (Bricker) Edwards. Ruth Ann was raised in Copan, she attended and graduated from Copan Public Schools in 1954 and then went to work for Bell Telephone.

She married John Scott on Feb. 18, 1955, and they made their home in this area. In 1972 they purchased a farm in rural Copan and have made that their lifelong residence. John and Ruth Ann had three children: Stanley David (Stan) Scott, Pamela Renah (Pam) Scott and Jeffery Allen (Jeff) Scott.

She loved to cook and was a seamstress for many years out of her home while raising her children. She also babysat two very special kiddos, Becki Sue and Troy Elkins. She and John were active in the Dewey Recreation Association. She always kept him organized, kept the stat books for his teams, ran the concession stand and served as secretary treasurer for the recreation association.

After moving to the farm, she loved watching and being a part of her kid's livestock shows. She enjoyed cooking for others. John and Ruth Ann owned a catering service for years. During that time, she also ran the café at the Dewey Livestock Sale Barn along with her mother, Bessie, and Grandmother Scott.

She went to all the grandkids sporting events, livestock shows, life milestone events with pride in her eyes for all of them.

She was crafty and enjoyed making things for her family. She enjoyed antiques, going to estate sales, and especially farm sales and auctions. She owned Treasurers Are We, located downtown Dewey for 11 years. It was not only an antique mall, but a luncheon café. Her specialties were her homemade noodles, bread, chicken and ham salad sandwiches, and best of all her homemade pies. Her longtime friend Susie Elkins, and her sister-in-law Leona Edwards, among others, helped her serve in the cafe.

Ruth Ann was preceded in death by her parents and a brother, Carl (Dean) Edwards.

She is survived by her husband, John, of the home; two sons, Stan Scott and wife Donna of rural Caney, and Jeff Scott and wife Silvia of Leoti, KS; daughter, Pam Brown and husband Gary of rural Wann; brother, William H. “ As newly weds Bob and I were invited into the lives of John and Ruth Ann. We became so much more than friends - they made us part of their family. Ruth Ann taught me how to use a seam ripper (the most used sewing tool. She became Becki & Troy's Nannie (even tho she was much too young to be that). There were cattle shows, trips to the NFR, camping and fishing trips, graduations, weddings grand babies. - I could go on and on. Ruth Ann was my first 'grown up' friend who became my sister. My life has been blessed beyond words.
