“ I got to spend a lot of time with my Uncle Sam when I was little. I remember a few fun times. I won't forget a time that I stayed at him and Aunt Becky's house and he told me to not play with my cousin Henry's guitar and of course as a kid I did the opposite. Of course I also got in trouble. Lol. I do wish I would've went to see him more. I'll miss him dearly.

“ I met Sammy in the Assembly of God Church, in Wann, Oklahoma many years ago. We were members of the Royal Rangers and had a lot of fun times, roasting hot dogs and burning marshmallows over a campfire. My family moved to Pawnee, Oklahoma in 1968 and I lost contact until I met him again when he started working for the Oklahoma Department of Transportation, in Bartlesville. I stopped by the ODOT office about once a month or more and it was always good to see his smiling face and catch up on old times. Sammy will be missed, but his witness for God will live on.
