December 13, 1943 - October 9, 2019

Sarah was born on December 12, 1943, in the town of Bartlesville, OK, the daughter of Jack and Bertie Lou (Sizemore) Horsley. She grew up in a household with three brothers and one sister. Sarah attended high school for a brief time and shortly after went into the workforce to provide for her family. Her most recent job was at Floyds Supermarket as a cashier, where she knew everyone and everyone knew her. She was a joy to be around and brought smiles to her customers.

She was so much of a fan she went to Graceland in Memphis with her daughter Patricia in 2010 to explore the fascinating wonders of Elvis and his music. From visiting his house to every souvenir store and staying at the Elvis-themed hotel, the whole dream trip was a real treat for her. Sarah is loved by her friends and family will be cherished by many.

She is preceded in death by her father, mother, sister Ida Mary Greenfield, brothers John Horsley and George Horsley, and son Billy Neal Davis.

She is survived by her daughter Patricia "Trish" Ann Davis of Pawhuska, OK, son Robert Ray Newton Horsley of Pawhuska, brother William “Bill” Windland and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, cousins, and a host of friends and loved ones.

“ Bobby and Patricia, sending my condolences and heartfelt sympathy to you and family. I remember Ann when she stayed at grannies in Ramona and you both were little kids. Ann loved life, loved her children, loved her family and friends. She had the biggest laugh and a great sense of humor. I pray she is rejoiced in Heaven with her family members that have gone on before her. Peace, Love & Prayers to you all.

“ Ann was joy personified. She was a fashion diva and loved receiving compliments on her jewelry. She was a bright light that has burned out too soon. I never met anyone who didn't love her including me. There was always a smile on her face and empathy and kindness for others. She truly was one of a kind. My deepest sympathy to her family and friends. She will be missed. Carol Thomas “ Ann was such a big part of my teen years. She always made time to come spend the night, swim, cook, fish, take us shopping and was there for birthdays, graduation and holidays She was kind Her laugh made my heart so happy. I couldn't wait for her next visit! So many happy memories. I take comfort in knowing that she is reunited with her mama, Billy and so many other loved ones that are waiting for us.
