He loved playing games with them and watching their various activities. Scott enjoyed hosting family bon fires, camping, cookouts, and fish fries. He liked to swing dance and taught his daughters how to dance in their living room.

He was an all-around family man and would often encourage his family with the words, "Oh honey, it will be alright."

Scott is survived by his loving wife of 30 years, Susan (Gordon) House; three daughters, LeEtta Toye and her husband Zachery, Candice Taylor and her husband Jason, Hailey Pacheco and her husband Raphael; one son, Ike House and his wife Ashton; bonus children, Jennifer McLain, and Lisa Drumm and her husband Josh; eight grandchildren and one on the way, Aidan, Trevor, RaeLee, Jakob, Addyson, Charley, Jensen, Rosalie, and a baby girl waiting to be born; two sisters, Twila Fees, and Delsa Short and her husband Jim; two brothers, Steve House and his wife Lisa, and James House and his wife Debbie; and a host of extended family and friends.
