

Serjio Rodriguez Ramos

March 29, 1969 - September 30, 2021

Serjio Ramos, 52, of Dewey, died Thursday in Tulsa. He will be reunited in heaven with his departed loved ones and Christ his Savior.

Serjio was born the son of Jesus and Faustina (Rodriguez) Ramos on March 29, 1969, in San Pablo, Mexico. In 1992, he left family and friends emigrating to Oklahoma to be nearer to other close family members while striving to better support his immediate family. Serjio married Elaine Shrum in 1997, and to them one son was born, Nick. Although Serjio and Elaine later divorced, they remained friends. From an early age, Serjio learned the importance of hard work, a value he passed on to his son. Serjio worked for many years at Central States Business Forms in Dewey.

Serjio had a passion for country music and cooking, with a big heart and a deep love for his extended family. When not at work, he enjoyed hanging out at home with Nick.

Serjio is survived by his son Nick Ramos; siblings, Serafin Ramos, Ramiro Ramos, Lala Ramos and J. Salud Ramos; sister Juanita Ramos; niece Kelsey Ramos; nephew Jesus Ramos and great nephew Bentley Cospier, whom he lovingly referred to as "Benito."

“ you were the life of the party. i would do anything for one more day with you. one more goodnight text. one more “how’s my benito” text. i have to believe God knew it was your time to go be with grandma & grandpa. you are no longer suffering, you are in peace and smiling down on us. you are in a beautiful place with no pain, no battles. just love and happiness. i love you uncle yayo, until my last breath. i will miss you... until i see you again.
