“ Just want to first give condolences to Shaunas children and family. I met Shauna through social media. I was most known as sweetie or simply Sara sweetie. But to Shauna was just Sara a friend. She was loved and she was a such a joy to her friends and loved ones. Sometimes this life just isn't fair when those we loved taken so soon. We will miss her very much. God bless you Beth and your sweet baby brother too!

“ Shauna was a miracle baby. She was born early. She was so small that she could fit in the palm of your hand, The dr at the time believe that she would not survive. So they told her mom just to put baby helming on her virth certificate. Time past and she survived, everyone forgot that the birth certificate had just baby on it and no name. It wasn't tell highschool they got a copy of the certificate and realized there was no name and fix it, We all should fell privilege that we got to know her. Shauna is survived by two children. A older brother james deason, a older sister Crystal Johnson. She is proceeded in death by her mom connie nickles and her grandparents.

“ *My sweet friend Shauna!
I am so heartbroken and wish I could do something to help with the pain of your loss. We formed a bond the last year or so. So happy I could help when you reached out and wish you had reached out that one last time. I am going to miss you and you will forever be in my heart. To Shauna sweet children I am sorry and one thing I do know is she loved you both. Rest in peace my sweet friend.*

“ We have been great friends for a little over three years. It is incredibly hard to type here knowing you are not here anymore. We can't talk on the phone anymore. We have had many laughs together. I loved to see you laugh. You also introduced me to your daughter Beth. She is an amazing person. Every time I want to write something I choke up. Every time I eat I hear your voice saying, "Incoming bite!" RIP sweet sweet girl. You are loved by many and missed by many. I pray that you and your mother and grandma found each other in heaven. Stay Blessed, Stay, True, Stay, Positive . 🙏💜🙏💜🙏💜🙏💜 Donna
