Shirlee Evans Phillips was born October 11, 1924 in Bartlesville to Howard and Lorraine Evans. Shirlee married John Phillips, grandson of Frank and Jane Phillips and to their union were two sons; Johnny and Frank Phillips. Having spent time in the Bartlesville-Woolaroc area, the family later resettled in Patagonia, AZ, then Scottsdale, AZ and finally in Tulsa in the early 1960's. Shirlee was an embroidery expert and had a shop in Utica Square with her mother-in-law, Mildred (Phillips) Grimshaw. She also was personal assistant to lawyer, John Eagleton and Philanthropist, "Jack" Zink. She loved the sun and sea before all else and spent her later years in Florida before illness required her to move to the Fayetteville, AR area to be closer to relatives. However, her love remained in Bartlesville where she found home once more living at the Bartlesville Health & Rehab Community.

Shirlee is survived by her son Johnny Phillips, two grandchildren; Phil and Holly and four great granddaughters. She was preceded by her son, Frank Phillips.
