Thomas Michael “Tom” Monroe, 56 of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Heritage Villa nursing center, passed away peacefully by on October 14, 2025, due to respiratory distress with his brother by his side.

His kindness and reliability left a lasting impact on colleagues and customers alike, even while disabled living at the Heritage Villa Nursing Center. “ Tom has a Nephew Matthew Lambdin that worked with him at Dillons that cherished his time working next to his uncle Matthew will miss his uncle tremendously.

Tom has a Niece Chyenne Lambdin she wasn't close to him as her brother Matthew was but she'll miss him tremendously too.

Tom has always been a kind, sweet classmate, friend & at one time a awesome brother-in-law he always was there to lend a helping hand, a shoulder to lean on & could always make me smile with his quirky sense of humor.

I will miss him deeply!!
