

Tricia Kay Moses

April 6, 1971 - March 18, 2024

Tricia Kay Moses, age 52, of Ochelata, Oklahoma, was called to her heavenly home on March 18, 2024, after a battle with early onset Alzheimer's.

Tricia was born on April 6, 1971, in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. She was the daughter of Ruby Moody and Walter Moody. She spent her childhood years in Oglesby, Oklahoma, graduating from Caney Valley High School in 1990. After completing high school, she worked in the dental field as a dental hygienist. She loved kids and that passion soon grew to lead her to go back to school and get her Bachelor of Science degree in Early elementary Education. She taught for 11 years in both the Caney Valley Elementary School and Barnsdall Elementary School. She was also a 4-H Youth Development Extension Educator for the Tulsa County OSU Extension in 2018.

On March 11, 1995, she married the love of her life, Paul Ryan Moses and they made their home outside of Ochelata, Oklahoma. They were blessed with two sons, Hayden Ryan and Weston Lane. They were her pride and joy. Her most favorite thing to do was to be involved with her boys and in the 4-H activities. She loved all things 4-H. Whether it was working with them on their 4-H projects, volunteering in the 4-H Beef Club, entering exhibits for the Free Fair or preparing for the Washington County Junior Livestock Show, you could always find her in the middle of it helping get things done. It was a family activity and they all enjoyed it. Tricia had a beautiful voice and loved to sing, whether it be singing in church, singing the National Anthem in a parade or just singing in the car. She was a love of the outdoors and wasn't afraid to try new things. She enjoyed going with Paul on trail rides with their mules, camping in the wall tent (with a wood stove), taking care of the livestock, rescuing baby critters or playing with the dogs. She loved "junking," sister days, trips with the girls to Canton and getting together every Thursday for lunch with her mom and sisters. She loved the Lord and faithfully attended the Church of Christ in Ramona, Oklahoma. Her love for Him was evident in her beautiful smile and her caring nature.

Tricia loved the color green. We would like to invite you all to wear green at her service on Saturday in honor of our "Green Girl."

Memorial donations may be made to the Washington County Junior Livestock Show, Memo: Tricia Moses Scholarship Fund. Their address is: WCJLS, P.O. Box 624, Dewey, OK 74029.

Tricia is survived by her husband, Paul and two sons, Hayden and Weston Moses of the home in Ochelata; sisters, Kathy (Keith) Sims of Bartlesville, OK, and Barbara (Robert) Lee of Dewey, OK; stepbrothers, Jerry Moody of Dewey, OK, and Ronnie Moody of Bartlesville, OK; father-in-law, Carrol Moses of Talala, OK; sisters-in-law, Chris Moses of Talala, OK, Mary (Kyle) Olree of Andrews, TX, and Sue Mauer of Surprise, AZ; brother-in-law, Mark (Rebecca) Moses of Talala, OK; multiple nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Ruby Moody; brother, Donnie Keller; mother-in-law, Elaine Moses; nephew, Danny Lee; and her grandparents.
